2. Ordinance Codification Legal Review

Lowe advised that we are working on organizing and codifying our Darmstadt Town ordinances and resolutions. Lowe stated the attorney had some items on the codification process for the council to review in addition to the legal questions from American Publishing they had sent us all a few weeks ago before submitting the answers to American Publishing by our deadline. The council gathered around to go through the ordinances in question, clarify them, and check for accuracy for the publishing company. Lowe will forward the information to the attorney for confirmation and then submit it to American Publishing.
